

Hope Network Ministries at Pepperdine Bible Lectures 2017

Tuesday, May 2

2:30 - 4pm, Hahn Fireside Room

Hosts: Grady King, Jon Mullican

Healing Wounded Healers

Ministers and their spouses largely give to others. This session provides an opportunity for ministers and their spouses to receive - receive a blessing, receive a hearing, receive encouragement. Come and be blessed by those who understand your journey, your loneliness, and your need to be prayed over. Limited seating. Registration required.

Wednesday, May 3

9:30 - 10:15am, Raitt Recital Hall

Teacher: Chris Goldman

No More Doctrine, Part 1

Why we need to stop teaching and preaching doctrine.

: Creating Forward Movement in Your Church

Crippling concerns, fixed fiefdoms, leadership logjams and muddled missions all play their part stopping God's people in their tracks. Non-anxious leaders, equipped by God, can help their local church in practical ways to overcome these obstacles and move forward.

2:30-3:15pm, AC 270

Teacher: Carlus Guppton

A For Time For Everything (The Genius of "AND" in Life and Leadership)

In our polarized culture, and in the anxiety this often produces in life and leadership, it is sometimes difficult to keep perspective. In Ecclesiastes 3, we are reminded that often the best place to inhabit is the 'and,' embracing the normal push and pull of the human experience, and entering fully into each, whether it be breaking down and building up, silence and speech, etc.

2:30-3:15pm, BPC 188

Teachers: Grady King, Jon Mullican

Bullies on the Playground (Courageous Strategies for Dealing with "Bullies" in the Church and Leadership)

Too many congregations are held hostage by one dominant person who gets his or her way. Often, it's not about how the bully acts, but rather who puts up with it and why. There is a courageous way forward for the health and growth of everyone. It matters.

2:30-4:15pm, BPC 190

Teacher: Jim Martin

Special Challenges and Care for Ministers' Families

One of the challenges for elders and congregations is learning to care for the families of its ministers. It is important that ministers understand some of the particular challenges their families might face. The purpose of the class is to provide awareness of issues and ministry opportunities.

3:30-4:15pm, Raitt Recital Hall

Teachers: Mark Frost, Doug Peters, Phil Ware, Tim Woodroof

Improving Congregational Wellness (Part1: How Healthy is our Church?)

The doctor who treats himself has a fool for a patient.

High Tides, Tidal Waves, and Tsunamis (Navigating the Seasons of our Spiritual Lives)

We will explore sustainable rhythms of spiritual practices for seasons of busyness, seasons of change, and seasons of displacement.

3:30- 4:15pm, Raitt Recital Hall

Teachers: Mark Frost, Doug Peters, Phil Ware, Tim Woodroof

Improving Congregational Wellness (Part 2: Developing Healthier Habits)

If you want to be physically healthy, pay attention to diet and exercise. If you want to be healthier as a church, pay attention to...what? There are a few "healthy church habits" every church can develop to keep Christ's body in shape.

Friday, May 5

8:30-9:15am, AC 263

Teacher: Doug Peters

A Song in Sermon: Preaching the Song of Songs

How do we imagine the world of the Song and its message for today

Teachers: Dan Garrett, Tim Woodroof

Leaving a Legacy (More than Money)

What is the most valuable thing you can leave future generations? For centuries, 70% of family wealth has dissipated by the second generation, 90% by the third. More importantly, many have lost family unity and faith. We will discuss ways to leave your true legacy as well as explore resources to foster leadership, communication and values.
